The main header area is dark blue with the text 'Finance and capital markets' and 'Unit: Accounting and financial statements'. Below this, the page is divided into two main sections. The left section is titled 'Lessons' and contains three items: 'Cash versus accrual accounting', 'Three core financial statements' (with two document icons), and 'Depreciation and amortization'. The right section is titled 'Cash versus accrual accounting' and contains a 'Learn' section with three video lessons: 'Cash accounting', 'Accrual basis of accounting', and 'Comparing accrual and cash accounting'. Below this is another section titled 'Three core financial statements' with a 'Learn' section containing 'Balance sheet and income statement relationship' and a 'Practice' section containing 'Interpreting the Balance Sheet' (7 questions) with a 'Practice' button.
